• Hold up the picture of the influent/effluent
• When the water comes into the treatment, plant it’s dirty (remind them it’s our dishwasher, shower water, toilet water).
• The job of the wastewater treatment plant is to clean the water before putting back into the environment.
• Why do you think it is important that water be cleaned before going into the environment?
• What are some uses of oceans and river waters?